With women comprising more than half of Haiti’s population, and nearly 40 per cent of all citizens under the age of 14, women and youth must play vital roles in Haiti’s reconstruction and future. Efforts are now helping them address challenges and build capacity.