MESSAGETFROMTHEPRESIDENT

At the end of August 2009, in a small community hall in Lusaka, Zambia, I was able to see with my own eyes to what extent DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE’s contribution—modest though it may be—is both effective and, above all else, essential. All of the partners that DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE is working with in this small country in southern Africa were there. They were talking about their daily lives, the challenges they face, the results they are achieving and the projects they still want to carry out. And all I can do is take my hat off to their courage. They persevere in the struggle for social justice, in spite of all the enormous challenges they face.

I like to think that it is this same spirit that inspires the entire DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE network here in Canada. They also talk about the everyday conditions of their brothers and sisters, not just in Zambia, but in Colombia or the Philippines as well. They talk about women and men who have been hit hard by various crises, be they social, economic or even food-related, and that we hear so little about.

Our members are carrying out this work of solidarity while bearing in mind that nothing will change in the Global South unless something changes here. That is why our members put so much energy into raising awareness among Canadians about how our country or its various institutions behave in the Global South. And it leads to results.

As a matter of fact, one MP pointed out to his colleagues the importance of the work being carried out by DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE. After spending some time with DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE members from his own riding and discussing the behaviour of certain Canadian mining companies in the Global South, he recognized that what our members were saying was relevant and, above all, persuasive. The actions of our partners in the South—like those in Zambia—are just as eloquent.

MESSAGE FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

It is never easy to summarize in a few short pages all the events and achievements that have marked 2008-2009 at DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE. We work directly in 33 countries, where we support over 200 projects, all of which deserve our attention. We also respond to humanitarian crises as they arise, and as active members of the international networks of the Catholic Church Caritas Internationalis and CIDSE, our work truly extends to all corners of the globe.

This global reach is what maximizes the impact of our work. By collaborating with local partners, we tap into their knowledge and experience to support locally-designed solutions to poverty and injustice. Through the strong ties that local Caritas organizations have with their respective communities, we are able to respond effectively to emergencies that touch them.

For instance, in 2008-2009, we contributed towards humanitarian relief for those affected by ongoing conflict in the Gaza Strip, people left hungry by skyrocketing inflation in Zimbabwe, families left homeless by military and rebel clashes in Pakistan, and those displaced and isolated by violent atrocities in the Congo, amongst others.

Equally important, are the numerous and varied projects that we support through our regular program, such as the Afghanistan Women’s Resource Centre, which attracted a record number of women for vocational training, and Campo Vale in Brazil, which helped defend families threatened by dam projects and negotiated fair resettlements – to name but a few.

By working with local partners, we can best reach the most marginalized and oppressed of the world’s poor and stand by them in their struggles. More and more, however, we are realizing that these struggles must be addressed through our own actions here in the North, through advocacy, education and by making visible the undeniable bonds of solidarity that exist between all of us around the globe.

As we enter into a period of reflection for our 2011-2016 strategic planning, it is a moment of excitement and hope at DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE. It is a time when we can look back at our accomplishments, some of which are presented here in the Annual Report, while at the same time examine the best ways in which we can continue to spread social justice, not only in the Global South, but worldwide.

Michael Casey
Executive Director

OUR MISSION

DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE is the official international development organization of the Catholic Church in Canada. The organization was founded in 1967 by Canadian Bishops, clergy and laypersons to fight poverty in the Global South and create greater global justice. Our actions are inspired by the values of the Gospel, particularly the “preferential option for the poor.”

We provide support to grassroots organizations in the Global South that seek to transform social, economic and political structures that perpetuate injustice.

In Canada, we raise public awareness on the root causes of poverty in the developing world and mobilize Canadians to act in solidarity to address these.

Our work is facilitated by our participation in an extensive network of social justice organizations in Canada and at the international level. We are also Caritas Canada, the Canadian member of the worldwide Caritas Internationalis network.
ACCESS TO LAND: A HUMAN RIGHT

Our International Programs consistently seeks to empower local communities in defending their rights, and over the last year we saw several of our partners make impressive gains in their respective struggles to protect their land and their access to it.

In Guatemala, our partner CONIC succeeded in freeing up land leases that benefitted 31,951 families.

In the Philippines, several civil society groups supported by DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE mobilized and successfully extended the Comprehensive Agrarian Reform Program, which provides for land distribution and support services to over one million farmers.

In Colombia, JUSTICIA Y PAZ helped two communities in Chocó province make a presentation at the Inter-American Commission on Human Rights and successfully lobbied the commission to authorize precautionary measures to defend the territory of indigenous people.

For these partners and the many others we support in the Global South, these struggles are not easily won and can even put lives at risk. In fact, on October 6, 2008, we sadly learned that Luz Marina Morales, Mauricio Largo Bañol, and Cesar Largo Alarcón, all members of our Colombian partner CRIDEC, were dragged from their homes in the indigenous reserve of Nuestra Señora de la Candelaria in western Colombia and brutally murdered by a paramilitary group. CRIDEC is fighting to protect indigenous land rights in the face of mounting pressures to allow mining companies into their communities and this resistance often makes them the target of paramilitary groups who intimidate and murder without impunity.

We are proud to stand in solidarity with all these partners who show such tremendous courage in the face of adversity.
WITNESS TO CHANGE: BISHOPS’ MISSION TO AFRICA

In the summer of 2009, a delegation of Canadian Bishops and other supporters of DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE travelled to Burundi and Zambia to witness first-hand the courageous and determined work of our partners to counter injustices in these oft-forgotten countries.

Participants in the mission included Most Rev. Brendan O’Brien, Archbishop of Kingston, Most Rev. Pierre-André Fournier, Archbishop of Rimouski, and Msgr. Mario Paquette, Secretary-General of the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops. They were accompanied by Mary Nordick, Chairperson of Community Life of the Catholic Women’s League, Pat Hogan, President of DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE and Michael Casey, Executive Director of DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE.

Whether visiting with the energetic women at Women for Change in Zambia, who daily try to break down barriers to improve the lives of rural women or meeting with youth who attend the Kamenge Youth Centre in Burundi and cling to the hope of rebuilding their country from the ravages of war, the delegation witnessed powerful accounts of how DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE works with its partners to create enduring change.

They returned to Canada with an inspiring message that, through partnership and solidarity, change is possible.

ABOUT OUR PARTNERS IN ZAMBIA AND BURUNDI:

- The Kamenge Youth Centre in Burundi welcomes 1,500 to 2,000 youths on average per day.
- IFB-Inades Formation in Burundi is strengthening agriculture by reaching 125,577 coffee producers, 2,230 tea producers and 43 organizations for cotton-producers.
- The Iteka League in Burundi, which defends human rights, provided assistance to 2,500 individuals, resolved 52 conflicts through mediation and advocated the release of 341 falsely-detained individuals.
- The Law and Development Association in Zambia provided free legal advice for 1,467 cases.
- The Zambia Land Alliance improved the ability of widows to have access to land.
EMERGENCY RELIEF: BRINGING ATTENTION TO THE UNDER-REPORTED CRISIS IN THE CONGO

When violence erupted in the restive province of Northern Kivu in the Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC), the Catholic Bishops of the region could not stand in silence in the face of the suffering of their people. With the help of DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE, Bishop Fulgence Muteba, Bishop Fridolin Ambongo Besungu and Sister Marie-Bernard Alima Mbala travelled to Canada to bear witness to the atrocities in their homeland, including the large-scale massacres of civilians, systematic rape as a weapon of war and the inhuman living conditions of the displaced.

Travelling to Parliament Hill by invitation of Conservative MP Steven Blaney (Lévis-Bellechase), they asked Canadian politicians, including Minister of Foreign Affairs Lawrence Cannon, to take action. The delegation also gave several interviews to Canadian media outlets, bringing much-needed attention to this humanitarian crisis.

DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE also launched an emergency appeal to the public and the government for this crisis. The response was tremendous: $1,375,000 raised for the people of the DRC.

In collaboration with Caritas Congo, these funds were used to:

- Provide 40,000 families with blankets, clothing, utensils and other essentials;
- Provide seven hospitals and 25 health centres with essential medical supplies and medicine;
- Provide temporary shelter and household items to 5,000 displaced families; and
- Come to the aid of 10,800 people who were displaced, brutalized and victimized by the conflict.
OTHER EMERGENCY AID IN 2008-2009

- Food, shelter, water and other necessities were distributed to 252,000 people affected by Cyclone Nargis in Burma;

- Caritas Jerusalem provided healthcare services to 5,000 Palestinians through its medical centre, a mobile clinic and six local clinics;

- Caritas Pakistan provided medical assistance to 3,500 families in two refugee camps after clashes between the Taliban and the Pakistani military;

- The ACT-Caritas Darfur emergency response helped 300,000 people in South and West Darfur.

BILL C-300 FOR A FAIRER WORLD

The focus of our education campaigns on land and natural resources has resulted in a strong and united voice in Canada that is being heard:

- 500,000 action cards signed over three years
- 120 meetings with Members of Parliament across Canada

This concerted action helped in the passing of Private Members’ Bill C-300 (an Act respecting Corporate Accountability for the Activities of Mining, Oil or Gas Corporations in Developing Countries), which was tabled by Liberal MP John McKay (Scarborough-Guildwood) in February 2009. The Bill was drafted based on recommendations generated through the National Roundtables on Corporate Social Responsibility and the Canadian Extractive Industry in Developing Countries, in which DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE participated.

At its core, Bill C-300 would make Canadian government support to mining, oil and gas companies contingent on their respect of the highest Corporate Social Responsibility standards for human rights and the environment at home and abroad.

After a second reading, the Bill was adopted in the House of Commons on April 22nd, 2009 with 137 votes in favour and 133 against. The Bill was then referred to the Standing Committee for Foreign Affairs and International Development, where DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE was invited to make a presentation and answer questions.

The Bill must now continue on its course towards legislation by passing through a third reading and vote in the House of Commons and onto the Senate for final approval.

If legislated, the Bill will be a shining example of how Canadians can take action at home to create change that improves the lives of those living in the Global South.
WORKING OUR LAND, FIGHTING FOR OUR RIGHTS

Over the last two years, DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE’s education program has been focused on raising awareness in Canada about equitable access to land and natural resources. This year’s theme Working our land, fighting for our rights was inspired by these principles of Catholic Social Teaching:

1. The Earth is Sacred. All life is interconnected and interdependent. Therefore, the Earth’s ecological diversity, beauty and health must be protected.
2. The Earth’s resources must be shared by peaceful means in an equitable manner.
3. All people have the right to participate fully in and have control over the decisions that affect their lives and communities.
4. Decisions made for the benefit of one community must not violate the rights of other communities.
5. The importance of the Earth’s resources to the common good takes priority over any possible commercial value.
6. In the extraction, management, and use of resources, human rights must be respected.

After listening to the struggles of our partners in the Global South, who face at times brutal pressure to hand over their land for exploitation, we continue in our efforts to call on the Canadian government to put into place better mechanisms for monitoring mining companies and other Canadian companies involved in the extractive industries.

Through this campaign, we asked Canadians to voice their concerns about the corporate social responsibility of Canadian mining companies by signing a double action card that they could send to the Prime Minister’s Office and to their local MP. In 2008-2009, close to 165,000 cards were signed and sent by our supporters.
SHARE LENT 2009: I BELIEVE I GIVE

The global economic crisis sent rippling effects throughout the world in 2008-2009. The impact on the Global South was a food crisis that revealed the critical need for food sovereignty in that part of the world and the looming threat of funding cuts to community development projects. Never was there a greater time to show committed solidarity to our partners. DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE launched its 2009 Share Lent fundraising campaign under the theme, I Believe I Give, to invite Canadians to show their support for greater social justice worldwide.

The French and English dioceses in the Ottawa area organized an official launch for the campaign at the Human Rights monument in downtown Ottawa, which included moving testimonials from Archbishop Terrence Prendergast (Ottawa) and Archbishop Roger Ébacher (Gatineau), and a performance by the choir Just Voices.

Guests from the Democratic Republic of Congo, Indonesia, Nigeria and Haiti also travelled across Canada to speak in parishes, schools and at other events about the positive transformations taking place in their respective communities thanks to their collaboration with DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE.

Despite the difficult times, our supporters responded with generosity and compassion:

- 184 THINKfast events involving 7,500 youths.
- Solidarity Sunday collections all across Canada.
- Hundreds of presentations by guest speakers and members across the country.

$9 million raised!
