

Prayer of solidarity with the Rohingya

Merciful God, welcoming humans of all cultures and all origins, behold our world separated by borders, torn by wars.

For the past year, we have prayed in solidarity with the Rohingya, aware of their distress, of the violent and unfair situations that provoke exclusion, exile, and indignity.

Lord, you who hear the cry of the poor, compassionate in the face of all distress, save them from oppression and violence.
Give them courage, tear them away from fear,
give hope to families who can bear exile no longer.

We also pray for those who cause horrible suffering.
Free them from hatred and pride.

Merciful God, receive our prayers: may there be peace, justice, and solidarity for all peoples of the earth.

Amen

Prayer composed by Messages without borders